EMANCIPATION

HAS THE CHILD REACHED 19 YEARS OLD?

NO ↓

No emancipation. If the child is 18 and does not meet any of the factors, the burden is on the non-custodial parent to make an application for emancipation.

YES ↓

Is there more than one unemancipated child?

YES ↓

Is the child support unallocated?

YES ↓

Does the child whose emancipation is in question meet any of the factors?

YES ↓

Emancipation is not presumed. The non-custodial parent must make an application to the court. Child support will then be recalculated for the remaining children.

NO ↓

No Emancipation.

NO →

NO ↓

Do they meet any of the factors?

YES ↓

No Emancipation.

NO ↓

The child is presumed to be emancipated and obligation may cease without a court order.